Should at the time of the event the sum insured be less than the gross profit earned during 12 months from the date of event but for the loss, (hereunder the would have been turnover) the indemnity will be reduced by the proportion between the sum insured and the "would have been turnover".

Should the indemnity period specified in the schedule be longer than 12 months, the indemnity will be reduced by the proportion between the sum insured and the result of multiplying the "would have been turnover" by the number of months of the indemnity period divided by 12.

2. Loss of wages on dual basis, if separately covered in the schedule.

The insurance benefits will be calculated as hereunder:

A. Loss of wages:

II. Partial indemnity period-

The sum produced by applying the rate of wages to the shortage in turnover during the remainder of the indemnity period and multiplying by the percentage the wages covered for this period, less every savings in wages during the same period.

Should the loss of wages during this partial indemnity period exceed the sum arrived at as above, the sum deducted as saving under 1) above will be added to the insurance benefits, but in no case will the total indemnity for this period exceed the total loss of wages during this period less savings.

III. Extended indemnity period-

If an extended indemnity period is explicitly stated in the schedule, it is agreed that the insured at his option is entitled to extend the period for which he will receive full indemnity according to the definition under 1) above for the number of weeks of the extended period shown in the schedule.

This instead of the indemnity provided under 1) and 2) above. The indemnity will be established as per 1) above, however for the extended period.

In addition, the insured is entitled to indemnity for loss of wages as per 1) above for the remainder of the indemnity period but not more than the sum deducted as saving in wages for the extended period.

B. In respect of increase in cost of working:

I. The sum of the additional necessary and reasonable expenses incurred solely for the purpose of avoiding or reducing the reduction in turnover which but for that expenditure would have taken place during the indemnity period in consequence of the insured event.

Under the condition that the above sum, shall not exceed the sum saved as indemnity under loss of wages, should the sum not have been incurred.

II. Under Insurance:

Should at the time of the event the sum insured be less than the wages which would have been during 12 months from the date of event but for the loss, (hereunder the would have been wages) the indemnity will be reduced by the proportion between the sum insured and the "would have been wages".

Should the indemnity period specified in the schedule be longer than 12 months, the indemnity will be reduced by the proportion between the sum insured and the result of multiplying the "would have been wages" by the number of months of the indemnity period divided by 12.

Claim in writing for the loss or damage containing, as particular an account as may be reasonably practicable, of all the several articles or items or property damaged or destroyed, and of the amount of the loss or damage thereto respectively, having regard to their value at the time of the loss or damage not including profit of any kind.

b. Particulars of all other insurances, if any. The Insured shall also, at all times at his own expense, produce, procure and give to the Insurer all such further particulars, plans, specification, books, vouchers, invoices, duplicates or copies thereof, documents, investigation reports (internal/ external) proofs and information with respect to the claim and the origin and cause of the fire and the circumstances under which the loss or damage occurred, and any matter touching the liability or the amount of the liability of the Insurer, as may be reasonably required by or on behalf of the Insurer, together with declaration on oath or in other legal form of the truth of the claims and of any connected therewith.

No claim under this policy shall be payable unless the terms of this condition have been complied with.

2. In no case whatsoever shall the Insurer be liable for any loss or damage after the expiration of 12 months from the happening of the loss or damage, unless the claim is the subject of pending action or arbitration; it being expressly agreed and declared that if the Insurer shall disclaim liability for any claim hereunder and such claim shall not, within 12 months from the date of the disclaimer, have been made the subject matter of a suit in a court of law, then the claim shall for all purposes be deemed to have been abandoned and shall not thereafter be recoverable hereunder.

3. On the happening of loss or damage to any of the property insured by this policy, the Insurer may

e. The powers conferred by this condition shall be exercisable by the Insurer at any time, until notice in writing is given by the Insured that he makes no claim under the Policy, or if any claim is made, until such claim is finally determined or withdrawn, and the Insurer shall not by any act done in the exercise or purported exercise of its powers hereunder, incur any liability to the Insured or diminish its rights to rely upon any of the conditions of this Policy in answer to any claim.

If the Insured or any person on his behalf shall not comply with the requirements of the Insurer or shall hinder or obstruct the Insurer, in the exercise of its powers hereunder, all benefits under this Policy shall be forfeited.

The Insured shall not in any case be entitled to abandon any property to the Insurer whether taken possession of by the Insurer or not.

4. If the claim be in any respect fraudulent, or if any false declaration be made or used in support thereof or if any fraudulent means or devices are used by the Insured or any one acting on his behalf, to obtain any benefit under the policy or if the loss or damage be occasioned by the willful act, or with the connivance of the Insured, all benefits under this Policy shall be forfeited.

5. If the Insurer at its option, reinstates or replaces the property damaged or destroyed, or any part thereof, instead of paying the amount of the loss or damage, or join with any other Insurer or Insurer in so doing, the Insurer shall not be bound to reinstate exactly or completely but only as circumstances permit and in reasonably sufficient manner, and in no case, shall the Insurer be bound to expend more in reinstatement than it would have cost to reinstate such property as it was at the time of the occurrence of such loss or damage nor more than the sum insured by the Insurer thereon.

If the Insurer so elects to reinstate or replace any property, the Insured shall at his own expense, furnish the Insurer with such plans, specification, measurements, quantities and such other particulars as the Company may require, and no acts done, or caused to be done, by the Company with a view to reinstatement or replacement shall be deemed an election by the Insurer to reinstate or replace.

If, in any case, the Insurer shall be unable to reinstate or repair the property hereby insured, because of any municipal or other regulations in force affecting the alignment of streets or the construction of buildings or otherwise, the Insurer shall, in every such case, only be liable to pay such sum as would be requisite to reinstate or repair such property if the same could lawfully be reinstated to its former condition.

6. If the property hereby insured shall, at the time of reinstatement/ replacement/ repair following a loss or damage indemnifiable under the Policy, be of greater value than the sum Insured under the Policy, then the Insured shall be considered as being his own Insurer for the difference and shall bear a rateable proportion of loss.

Each item of the Policy to which this condition applies shall be separately subject to the foregoing provisions.

Provided however that if the said sum insured in respect of such item(s) of the Schedule shall not be less than 85% (Eighty Five percent) of the value of the item(s) thereat, this condition shall be of no purpose and effect.

7. If, at the time of any loss or damage happening to any property hereby insured, there be any other subsisting insurance or insurances, whether effected by the Insured or by any other person or persons covering the same property, this Company shall not be liable to pay or contribute more than its rateable proportion of such loss or damage.

8. The Insured shall at the expense of the Insurer do and concur in doing, and permit to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary or reasonably required by the Insurer for the purpose of enforcing any rights and remedies or of obtaining relief or indemnity from other parties to which the Company shall be or would become entitled or subrogated, upon its paying for or making good any loss or damage under this policy, whether such acts and things shall be or become necessary or required before or after his indemnification by the Insurer.

9. Every notice and other communication to the Insurer required by these conditions must be written or printed.

10. At all times during the period of insurance of this Policy, the insurance cover will be maintained to the full extent of the respective sum insured in consideration of which, upon the settlement of any loss under this Policy, pro rata premium for the unexpired period from the date of such loss to the expiry of period of insurance for the amount of such loss shall be payable by the Insured to the Insurer.

The additional premium referred above shall be deducted from the net claim amount payable under the Policy. Thus, continuous cover to the full extent will be available notwithstanding any previous loss, for which the Insurer may have paid hereunder and irrespective of the fact whether the additional premium as mentioned above has been actually paid or not following such loss. The intention of this condition is to ensure continuity of the cover to the Insured subject only to the right of the Insurer for deduction from the claim amount when settled, of pro-rata premium to be calculated from the date of loss till expiry of the Policy.

Notwithstanding what is stated above, the sum insured shall stand reduced by the amount of loss in case the Insured immediately on occurrence of the loss exercises his option not to reinstate the sum insured as above.

Arbitration:

"The parties to the contract may mutually agree and enter into a separate Arbitration Agreement to settle any and all disputes in relation to this policy.

Arbitration shall be conducted under and in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996." as amended from time to time.
