The prevailing Own Damage pricing of Motor policies does not differentiate on the basis of actual usage of the vehicle.

In Standard Motor OD Policy, the premium of OD cover of a vehicle that has covered 20,000 kilometers will be the same even if it had just covered 5,000 kilometers in a year. This is because the usage is not an underwriting criteria.

To benefit customers whose usage is limited, IFFCO-Tokio has created a usage based pricing mechanism under the Pay As You Use (PAYU) Add-on.

What is it ?

This Add-on will provide coverage as per standard Own Damage cover upto the kilometers band*, as opted and specified in the policy schedule.

Based on the kilometer band opted, Insured is eligible for the discount on the premium of the Own Damage Section of your motor insurance policy.

In the event, the Insured expects to exceed the kilometer opted during the policy period, he/she has the option to purchase top-up kilometers from the options available for coverage of Own Damage Section.

* Total loss arising out of theft and/or fire will be covered even if kilometers of the band opted, have exhausted (including all top-ups).

Grace kilometer: If during an ongoing trip, the kilometers are exhausted and the insured is unable to purchase a top-up, grace kilometers depending on his initial kilometer band shall be granted in case there is a claim

All add-ons pertaining to standard Own Damage cover shall be offered in conjunction with the ‘Pay As You Use’ Add-on Coverage.
